CROWN THE KING!

Introduction, Soli and Chorus.

Crown the King with Life!
  Through our thankful state
  Let the cries of hate
    Die in joy away;
Cease ye, sounds of strife!
    Lord of Life, we pray,
Crown the King with Life!

Crown the King with Might!
  Let the King be strong
  Hating guile and wrong;
    He that scorneth pride,
Fearing truth and right,
    Feareth nought beside;—
Crown the King with Might!

Crown the King with Peace;
  Peace that suffers long,
  Peace that maketh strong,
    Peace with kindly wealth,
As the years increase,
    Nurse of joy and health;—
Crown the King with Peace!

Crown the King with Love!
  To his land most dear
  He shall bend to hear
    Every pleading call;
Loving God above,
    With a heart for all;—
Crown the King with Love!

Crown the King with Faith!
God, the King of Kings,
Ruleth earthly things;
God of great and small,
Lord of Life and Death,
God, above us all!
Crown the King with Faith!

God shall save the King,
God shall make him great,
God shall guard the state;
All that hearts can pray,
All that lips can sing,
God shall hear to-day;—
God shall save the King!

II.

DAUGHTER OF ANCIENT KINGS.

Chorus

Daughter of ancient Kings,
Mother of Kings to be,
Gift that the bright wind bore on his sparkling wings,
Over the Northern Sea!

Nothing so sweet he brings,
Nothing so fair to see,
Purest, stateliest, Daughter of ancient Kings,
Mother of Kings to be!

III.

BRITAIN, ASK OF THYSELF.

SOLO (BASS) AND CHORUS (TENOR AND BASS.)

BRITAIN, ask of thyself, and see that thy sons be strong,
  Strong to arise and go, if ever the war-trump peal;
See that thy navies speed, to the sound of the battle-song,
  Then, when the winds are up, and the shuddering bulwarks reel,
Smite the mountainous wave, and scatter the flying foam,
  Big with the battle-thunder that echoeth loud and long;—
See that thy squadrons haste, when loosed are the hounds of hell:—
  Then shall the eye flash fire, and the valorous heart grow light,
Under the drifting smoke, and the scream of the flying shell,
  When the hillside hisses with death,—and never a foe in sight.
So shalt thou rest in peace, enthroned in thine island home;—
  Britain, ask of thyself, and see that thy sons be strong!

IV.

(1.) HARK, UPON THE HALLOWED AIR.

SOLI (SOPRANO AND TENOR.)

(2.) ONLY LET THE HEART BE PURE.

QUARTET.

HARK, upon the hallowed air,
  Spirits pure of sight and sense,
Hovering visions, rich and fair,
  Lend their radiant influence!
Airy powers of Earth and Sky
Bless our meet solemnity!

Music, sweetest child of heaven,
  At thy touch the heart is free,—
Ancient wrongs by thee forgiven,
  Cares uplifted, healed by thee,
Listen smiling, borne along
In the sacred tide of song.

Music of the poet's heart!
  Widening yet the echoes roll;
Fiery secrets, winged by art,
  Light the lonely listening soul,
Till the aching silence rings
With the beat of heavenly wings.

Magic web of woven hues,
  Tender shadow, linkèd line,
Sweet mysterious avenues
  Opening out to Light Divine!
Painter-poet, thou canst teach
More than frail and faltering speech.

Quartet.

Only let the heart be pure,
  Pure in steadfast innocence;
Stainless honour, strong and sure,
  Stem the ardent tide of sense!
So shall Wisdom, one with Truth,
Keep undimmed the fires of youth.

Strong to conquer, strong to bless,
  Britain, Heav'n hath made thee great!
Courage knit with gentleness
  Best befits thy sober state.
As the golden days increase,
Crown your victories with peace!

V.

PEACE, GENTLE PEACE.

QUARTET AND CHORUS (UNACCOMPANIED).

PEACE, gentle Peace, who, smiling through thy tears,
Returnest, when the sounds of war are dumb,
Replenishing the bruised and broken earth,
And lifting motherly her shattered form;
When comest thou? Our brethren long for thee.

Thou dost restore the darkened light of home,
Give back the father to his children's arms;
Thou driest tenderly the mourner's tears,
And all thy face is lit with holy light;—
Our earth is fain for thee! Return and come!

VI.

LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY.

FINALE (CONTRALTO SOLO AND TUTTI).

LAND of hope and glory, Mother of the free,
How may we extol thee, who are born of thee?

Truth and Right and Freedom, each a holy gem,
Stars of solemn brightness, weave thy diadem.

Tho' thy way be darkened, still in splendour drest,
As the star that trembles o'er the liquid West.

Throned amid the billows, throned inviolate,
Thou hast reigned victorious, thou hast smiled at fate.

Land of hope and glory, Fortress of the free,
How may we extol thee, praise thee, honour thee?

Hark, a mighty nation maketh glad reply;
Lo, our lips are thankful, lo, our hearts are high!

Hearts in hope uplifted, loyal lips that sing;
Strong in faith and freedom, we have crowned our King!
